District Magistrate, Tumkur.

Notification, dated 16th November, 1961

Order

Sub: Order under Section 144 of the Criminal Procedure Code 1898.

No. POL. SR. 460. Whereas it has been brought to my notice by the Tahsildar, Ranebennur and the District Health Officer, Dharwar that there is an out break of Cholera at Malnur, Nagehalli, Kavalettu and Antarawalli villages in Ranebennur Taluk and that the epidemic is spreading rapidly.

Whereas a large number of people from Antara walli and round about villages attend the weekly bazars at Halageri and Tumminakatti villages.

And whereas by the assemblage of the people there is likelihood of the Cholera epidemic taking a serious proportion causing danger to human life and health and immediate prevention of the spread of Cholera is desirable.

Now, therefore, I, D. B. Hosangandi. B. A., Additional District Magistrate Dharwar in exercise of the powers vested in me under Section 144 of the Cr. P. C. 1898, in the interest of human life and health, hereby direct that the weekly bazars should not be held in Halageri and Thumminakatti villages from today the 16th Day of November, 1962 till the 30th day of November 1962.

This order shall remain in force from this, 16th day of November 1962 to 30th day of November 1962 (both days inclusive).

OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT MAGISTRATE, DHARWAR.

Notification, dated 16th February, 1961

Sub : Order under Section 43 (1) of the Bombay Police Act, 1951 regarding special measures to prevent epidemic diseases at the fair of Sri Moureshwar and Chamansbavali at Karajgi in Haveri Taluk.

Order

No. POL. SR. 9776. Whereas it is reported by the District Health Officer Dharwar under his letter No. Fair/1066 dated 7 2 1261 that the fair of Sri Mouneshwar and Chamanshavali is to be held at Karajgi in Haveri taluk from 20 2 1961 to 23 3 1961.

Whereas it appears to the Additional District Magistrate Dharwar that the fair referred to above will on account of the large body of persons likely to assemble during the period referred to above, probably may be visited by out-break of the epidemic of cholera ;

And whereas it is considered necessary to take special measures to prevent the out break of the epidemic and for the protection of water supply, food and segregation of persons suffering from infectious diseases.

Now therefore in exercise of the powers conferred by sub section (1) of Section 43 of the Bombay Police Act, 1951, I. D. B. Hosangadi, B. A., Additional District Magistrate, Dharwar hereby prescribed the following regulations to be observed by the persons assembling at the fair of Sri Mouneshwar and Chamanshavali during the period mentioned in para 1 above.

1. That save in the case of a person in respect of whom a certificate has been produced from a Registered Medical Officer or an inoculator, duly authorised in that behalf, that such person has been inoculated against Cholera by him within six months immediately preceeding the date of the commencement of the fair mentioned in para 1 above every person attending the said fair or residing in the said fair area shall get himself or herself and those under his or her control or guardianship inoculated against Cholera.

2. The Publice Health Department will divide the water source Viz., the Wardha river into three divisions viz , Upper-stream for drinking water supply, Middle stream for bathing and washing purposes and the Lower stream for washing the cattle etc. No portion will be allowed for any purpose other than that for which it is reserved.

3. No person will be allowed to dip his or her vessel into drinking water source. The water servers will serve drinking water to the pilgrims from the drums buried in the bed of the river on the upper portion.

4. No one shall attend calls of nature in any place within the area except in the place reserved for the purpose.

5. No rotten fruits or other articles of food and drink unfit for human consumption shall be offered for sale and such fruits or articles of food and drinks will be liable to be attached by the Public Health Staff or the Police on duty.

6. All tea shops hotels and eating houses shall be open to inspection by the staff of the public health department on duty at the fair and they are authorised to give instructions to the owners as regards cleanliness and other sanitary matters and these instructions shall immediately be carried out by the said owners.

7. All persons visiting the fair area liable for Medical inspection and any one found suffering from Plague, small pox, Cholera or any other infectious disease shall be segregated forthwith.

Any person disobeying the above order will be liable for prosecution under Section 139 of the Bombay Police Act, 1951 which is punishable with imprisonment up to 3 months or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees or with both.

Given under my hand and seal this day of 16th February, 1961.
